Staff in Attendance

Yvonne Angus (YA), Regional Manager Jenna Philips (JP), Area Administration Officer

1.	Welcome & Apologies
	Yvonne Angus (YA) welcomed all members to the first Mid Argyll & Kintyre Area Committee meeting for the year 2019/20, with a special welcome to members that wished to observe today's meeting.
	JP advised that in advance of the meeting, apologies were received from Tommy MacPherson & Michael Roberts.
2.	Group Governing Body Members Code of Conduct YA advised members the purpose of the Code of Conduct is to ensure that the Governing Body members of the ACHA Group conduct themselves, and Group business, to the highest standards of propriety, governance and ethical behaviour while ensuring the effective operation of the Group. It is a condition of membership of a Governing Body within the Group that all Governing Body members agree to adhere to this Code of Conduct.
	The Code of Conduct sets out the requirements and expectations which are attached to the role of Governing Body member. All Governing Body members have a personal responsibility to uphold the requirements of this Code and no individual will be able to be a Governing Body member if they do not adopt and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct.
	In accordance with the Dulas of the According Section 20.6 states
	In accordance with the Rules of the Association, Section 38.6 states:
	"No Board or Area Committee Member may take office until they have agreed to and signed the Group Code of Conduct for Governing Body Members." Governing Dody Members.
	In accordance with the Scheme of Delegated Authority, Section 10

	Code of Conduct Principles, states:
	10.1 In terms of Rule 38.6 of the Rules no Area Committee Member may take office until they have agreed to and signed the Group Governing Body Members Code of Conduct.
	10.2 Thereafter, Area Committee Members must comply with their responsibilities as set out in the Group Governing Body Members Code of Conduct when acting in their capacity as Area Committee Members.
	As the Code of Conduct was to be reviewed and signed annually, all members in attendance signed the Group Governing Body Members Code of Conduct.
3.	Election of Office Bearers YA advised members that the first part of business to be carried out was the election of the Office Bearers. This is a Chairperson and a Vice Chairperson. YA further explained the Chairperson of the Area Committee would automatically become a member of the Board of Management, and is expected to attend these meetings, which are held every 6 weeks in Inveraray.
	YA advised that this should be by the individual. YA further advised that in the first instance, nominations for the position of Chairperson should be presented by tenant members of the Area Committee. If there are no nominations received from any tenant members, nominations could be considered from independent members. YA further clarified that the role of Chairperson could not be fulfilled by a Councillor representative and nominations could only be received from tenant or independent members.
	YA requested nominations for the position of Chairperson from the tenant members, however, there were no nominations received.
	YA requested nominations for the position of Chairperson from the independent members.
	Nominations: Betty Rhodick (BR) Proposed by: Councillor Donald MacMillan (DMacM) Seconded by: Gill Hutton (GH)
	Betty Rhodick was been duly elected as Chairperson of the Mid Argyll & Kintyre Area committee
	YA advised that BR would serve as Chairperson until the end of the next AGM and would also serve as a Board Member on the Board of Management.
	YA reminded members that in terms of Section 2.6: Area Committee Meetings - General Procedure, of the Scheme of Delegated Authority, all speakers must direct their words to the Chair of the Area Committee. All Area Committee members must remain quiet and maintain order while this is happening. The Chair will decide who can speak and for how long. If any point arises which is not covered in the Rules or these standing orders, the Chair's decision will be final.	]

	standing orders, the Chair's decision will be final.
	In regards to the position of Vice Chairperson, YA advised this should be by the individual in the first instance. This position can be held by a tenant member or independent member, if no tenant was available or willing to act in this capacity.
	YA requested nominations for the position of Vice Chairperson from the tenant members present.
	Nominations: Sandra MacKenzie (SMacK)
	Proposed by: Betty Rhodick (BR) Seconded by: Councillor Donald MacMillan (DMacM) YA confirmed that SMacK was been duly elected as Vice Chairperson of the Mid Argyll & Kintyre Area committee and would serve as Vice Chairperson until the end of the next AGM.

29 th May 2019 - Page 17: Lochgair Place Sheltered Housing
Complex: 40 years SMacK advised members that the sheltered housing complex, Lochgair Place in Tarbert was opened in October 1979 and was therefore 40 years this year. SMacK asked if ACHA would consider marking the occasion. YA agreed that this should be celebrated and suggested members consider options for the next meeting.
Update: members agreed an afternoon tea in the Church hall with the residents should be organised. It was also agreed a plaque would be erected to commemorate the significant milestone. YA suggested that information on the history of the complex would be collated and displayed.
It was agreed the finalised proposals would be presented to the next meeting in September.

9.	Area Committee Members
	• Group/Individual Photos YA explained to members that group and individual photos of the Area Committee would be used for publications purposes. It was agreed by all members that photographs would be taken at the end of the meeting.
	• Area Committee Member 2-minute interview YA explained that ACHA have a Communication group, who develop the newsletters. The Communications group have asked for members of the Area Committee to take part in a 2- minute interview for future newsletters. Ideally, this would be interviews that are not members of the Board of Management as we have already carried out interviews with Board members. YA further explained that in addition to an individual photograph of the Area Committee member, interviews would be based on the following questions:
	<ul> <li>How did you find out about ACHA?</li> <li>Why did you want to get involved?</li> <li>What has been the best bit so far?</li> <li>What has surprised you the most?</li> <li>If someone was thinking of getting more involved, how would you encourage them to get involved?</li> <li>Tell us something about yourself which might surprise people</li> </ul> people. YA asked that if members were interested to let YA or JP know.
	Their 2-minute interview and photo would feature in a future newsletter. FD and BR advised that they would be willing to participate.	FD/ BR
	• Consent for Photographs taken and held by ACHA YA explained that in terms of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), members are required to give consent for photographs taken and held by us can be used for publication purposes. All members in attendance signed the photograph consent form.

12.	Any Other Business
	As previously discussed, ACHA are currently carrying out a stock condition survey of all properties. BR advised that she is also the Secretary for Lochfyne Homes and after contacting ACHA, they have also instructed the same consultant. BR commented this was good collaborative working between the RSL's.
	BR advised Lochfyne Homes have arranged an event on Community Safety on 9 th September 2019 at 6.30pm. This will be held in the Community Centre in Lochgilphead and everyone is welcome to attend.
	community centre in Loongiphead and everyone is welcome to attend.
	YA reminded members that a number of new build sites in the Mid Argyll area are due to be completed in February/March 2020. YA suggested a tour of the sites is arranged for either the September or November meeting to allow members to view progress of these developments. Members welcomed the proposal of visiting the sites.
	FD advised members that she had received a letter from Jim Milne, Chairperson of the Board of Management regarding attendance at training, indicating that members should be attending all training.
	YA advised that she had been liaising with Corporate Services colleagues to highlight the concerns raised by members and to propose that training is carried out during Area Committee meetings. We are aware that Area Committee members attend meetings on a voluntary basis and we do not wish to discourage members. It was also noted that due to other commitments, the Mid Argyll & Kintyre Area Committee currently hold their meetings in the evening to accommodate members and to maximise attendance.
	Members welcomed the proposal for training to be carried out during Area Committee meetings and commented this would also reduce costs for the Association.
13.	Date & Time of Next Meeting
	Wednesday, 25 th September 2019 at 6.00pm in Dalriada House, Lochgilphead.

The meeting concluded at 19.30pm
