Esther Hughes, Inveraray

Esther has lived in Argyll for more than 10 years; after meeting her husband who has lived in Argyll all of his life. They have been ACHA tenants for nearly 9 years.

Esther has volunteered in church and local organisations including Historic Kilmun. She believes in using her curiosity and energy to serve the community. Esther has worked in retail, customer service and administration roles within the private sector & through self-employment for more than 12 years.

Housing can make a massive difference in someone's opportunities, health and wellbeing. Esther wants to ensure that ACHA's policies enable tenants to be at liberty to speak up, participate and also live well within ACHA homes.

When Esther isn't working, she is knitting, gardening, playing board games and dressing up in armour/ Dungeons & Dragons costumes.

The best way to contact Esther is by email or Facebook
