

Feedb@ck Forum

What is the Feedb@ck Forum?

The Feedb@ck Forum are a group of tenants who take part in surveys and consultations about Argyll Community Housing Associations services from the comfort of their own home.

What would be involved in being a member of the Feedb@ck Forum?

Survey and consultation documents are sent out to you using your preferred method of communication. Your views and suggestions are used by ACHA, as your landlord, to develop and improve services.

If you would like to join the Feedb@ck Forum, please complete the questions below or answer the questions online using the following link:

<https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/ACHAFF>

You can opt out of the Feedb@ck Forum at any time by emailing communications@acha.co.uk or contacting 0800 028 2755

Name:
Address:

What is your preferred method of communication (i.e. how do you wish to receive consultation documents)?

	Tick
Post
Email (please provide your email address in box below)

Mobile number (please provide your mobile number in box below)

Argyll Community Housing Association is committed to provide equal opportunities across all services and to avoid discrimination. If you require documents in other formats, please use the comments box below.

For example, documents can be available in large print, audio-format or Braille: the documents can also be available in other languages, in full or summary form, as appropriate.

Please return this form to your local ACHA office or email it to:
communications@acha.co.uk