

Jim Milne, MBE

From then to now in 62
years!

Jim Milne, living in Garelochhead and
currently Vice Chair.
Served on the Board
since 2012 following 51 years in the Royal Navy.

Interests include the history and development of naval aviation, restoration of old ship models and social housing.

Author of “I Joined to FLY NAVY”, “What Happened Next?” and “Flashing Blades Over the Sea”.

It has taken me a lifetime to understand the value of social housing to communities and people’s lives. I would like to think that those setting out on a career in social housing will learn to appreciate the importance of their employment quicker than I did!
