Section 1 Context

1.1 The aim of this policy is to ensure that Argyll Community Housing Association Limited (ACHA) acts in an open and transparent manner. . We offer opportunities for people living, and organisations working, in Argyll and Bute who share our objectives to participate in the shareholding of our Association.

Section 2 The Law and Good Practice

2.1 The main legislation which pertains to this policy is covered under the following Acts:

- 2.1.1 The Housing (Scotland) Act 2001: provides a statutory right to all tenants with Scottish Secure Tenancies to receive information about their landlord's policies and procedures. The Act also obliges landlords to consult and provide tenants with information in developing their Tenant Participation Strategy,
- 2.1.2 The Data Protection Act 1998: provides rights to individuals in relation to personal data held about them; and regulates the use of personal data,
- 2.1.3 The Freedom of Information Act (Scotland) 2002 and Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004: entitles members of the public to receive information for a public authority, subject to certain exemptions such as the need for the protection of personal data, commercial sensitivity or national security.

[Note: We are not bound by the Freedom of Information Act and the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004, which currently do not apply to registered social landlords]

Charter Indicator 1: Equalities

Social landlords perform all aspects of their housing services so that:
Every tenant and other customer has their individual needs recognised, is treated fairly and with respect, and receives fair access to housing and housing services.

This outcome describes what social landlords, by complying with equalities legislation, should achieve for all tenants and other customers regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation. It includes landlords' responsibility for finding ways of understanding the needs of different customers and delivering services that recognise and meet these needs.

Charter Indicator 3: Participation

Social landlords manage their businesses so that:
Tenants and other customers find it easy to participate in and influence their landlord's decisions at a level they feel comfortable with. This outcome describes what landlords should achieve by meeting their statutory duties on tenant participation. It covers how social landlords gather and take account of the views and priorities of their tenants; how they shape their services to reflect these views; and how they help tenants and other customers to become more capable of involvement.

2.1.6 Equalities Act 2010: the Equality Act 2010 sets out the protected characteristics on which discrimination is prohibited in law.

The protected characteristics, in alphabetical order, are as follows:

- age;
- disability;
- gender re-assignment;
- marriage and civil partnership;
- pregnancy and maternity;
- race;
- religion or belief;
- sex; and
